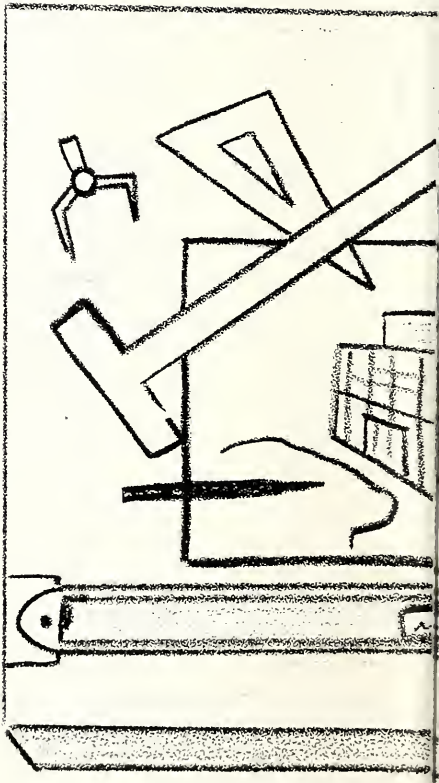
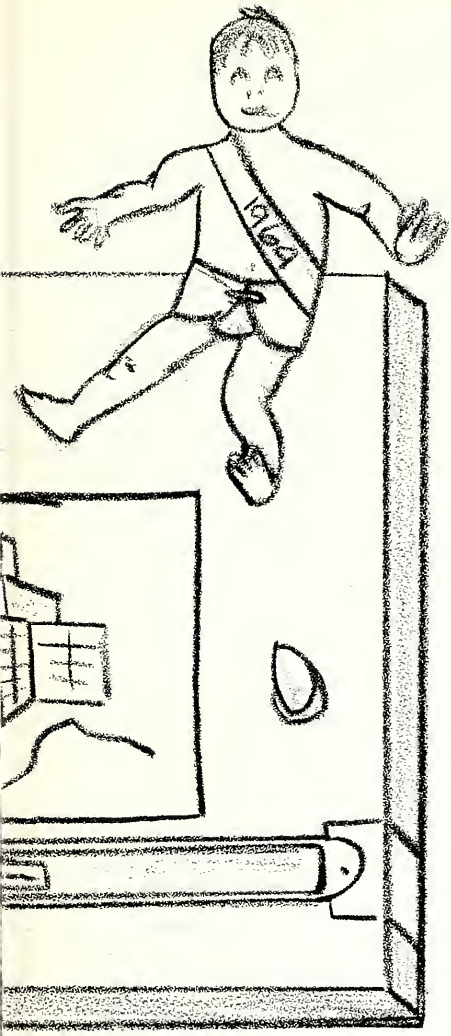
Graduation





Foreword

Graduation! This word jarred us to the realization that our preparation is over, finished. These four short years have brought us a long way. In addition to having sampled of the fruits of knowledge, we have also learned something of life.

As you follow Father Time through the pages of the 1964 Anilec, we editors hope you will find many pleasant reminders of your years at Celina High School.

ANILEC STAFF

Skip Gebhart
Karen Barber

Editors

Mr. Potts, we are happy for the opportunity to dedicate this Anilec to you because of your dynamic leadership and broad vision. We are grateful for your labors in our behalf, and hope that your ambitions may all be fulfilled.

SUPERINTENDENT H. M. POTTS

Co-Dedication

Mr. Brandon, we appreciate the academic atmosphere which you have created and thus inspired us to greater scholastic achievements. The sympathetic guidance and understanding which you have given us during our high school years have always encouraged us to attack our problems efficiently and effectively. In recognition of these attributes, we respectfully dedicate this Anilec to you.

AFS Exchange Student . . .

. . . Brazil's Norma Siqueira comes to Celina High School for a year.

We met Norma Siqueira in August. She had flown to the United States from Fortaleza, Brazil, to live with us until the next June. During the next ten months, Norma appeared to be a typical American student. By December, she was slaving along with the rest of us in English, government, journalism, speech, and chorus. Her English improved remarkably during her stay in Celina.

Perhaps her greatest accomplishment was winning our affection and respect.

In Memoriam

Dick Andrew

February 9, 1946
April 4, 1964

There is a Reaper, whose name is Death,
And, with his sickle keen,
He reaps the bearded grain at a breath,
And the flowers that grow between.

"Shall I have naught that is fair?" saith he;
"Have naught but the bearded grain?
Though the breath of these flowers is sweet to me,
I will give them all back again."

He gazed at the flowers with tearful eyes,
He kissed their drooping leaves;
It was for the Lord of Paradise
He bound them in his sheaves.

"My Lord has need of these flowerets gay,"
The Reaper said, and smiled;
"Dear tokens of the earth are they,
Where He was once a child.

"They shall all bloom in fields of light,
Transplanted by my care,
And saints, upon their garments white,
These sacred blossoms wear."

And the mother gave, in tears and pain,
The flowers she most did love;
She knew she should find them all again
In the fields of light above.

Oh, not in cruelty, not in wrath,
The Reaper came that day;
'T was an angel visited the green earth,
And took the flowers away.
